

I do not believe that allowing a few major corporations to own and control everything we read, see, and hear is in the best interest of the American public. It is a tragedy what has happened to the radio stations. Deregulation would be entirely for the benefit of big business. Diversity is in the best interest of the people. I urge you to vote for the people who are the owners of the airways and to vote against deregulation of the media.